

Where is 'Abdu'l-Baha in The Story of Baha'u'llah?

Throughout The Story of Baha'u'llah, in chapters noted below, the reader comes to know 'Abdu'l-Baha, eldest son of Baha'u'llah. Chapters 55, 56, 62, 68, 69 (see *) especially focus on the adult life and qualities of 'Abdu'l-Baha, His relationship to Baha'u'llah, and His station in the Baha'i Faith.

Chapter 8: Noble Descendant of a Noble Father
Birth of 'Abdu'l-Baha

Chapter 24: The Black Pit

Chapter 25: Cruel Days
'Abdu'l-Baha sees father as prisoner; family in danger. 'Abdu'l-Baha faces bullies.

Chapter 27: Banished
'Abdu'l-Baha recognizes Baha'u'llah as Promised One.

Chapter 28: Terrible Journey
Exile journey to Baghdad; 'Abdu'l-Baha on horseback in snow.

Chapter 33: The Nameless One
Twelve year-old 'Abdu'l-Baha at home as father sojourns in wilderness; copies passages from the Bab's Writings; finally prays all night for return of Baha'u'llah.

Chapter 35: Purity within Purity
Twelve year-old 'Abdu'l-Baha makes signs; screens visitors to Baha'u'llah.

Chapter 38: The Eldest Uncle's Questions
At sixteen 'Abdu'l-Baha is called "Aqa" meaning "the Master" by Baha'u'llah; helps transcribes His father's Writings.

Chapter 41: One Hundred and Ten Days
At nineteen 'Abdu'l-Baha takes charge of finding food for large caravan of exiles from Baghdad to Constantinople.

Chapter 47: Destination Unknown
Twenty-four year-old 'Abdu'l-Baha makes sure women prisoners are transported in a respectful manner as they are transported ashore to Acre prison.

Chapter 48: The Most Great Prison
In early days of Acre prison 'Abdu'l-Baha speaks up for prisoners' treatment; makes soup for sick until He Himself falls ill.

Chapter 49: Seeking a Glimpse of the Lord
'Abdu'l-Baha impresses officials. Arranges craftwork for prisoners to lift their spirits.

Chapter 52: The Greatest Gift

Description of 'Abdu'l-Baha at twenty-six, His sister Bahiyiyh Khanum and brother Mirza Mihdi; titles given them by Baha'u'llah. Mirza Mihdi's accident; 'Abdu'l-Baha begs for healing, mourns his passing.

Chapter 53: The Whisperings of Satan

When Baha'is released from prison, 'Abdu'l-Baha takes charge to improve caravanserai rooms except His own; story of sheepskin and fleas. 'Abdu'l-Baha stays with His father during Great Separation.

*Chapter 55: The Governor and the Master of Acre

Baha'u'llah leaves task of meeting public to 'Abdu'l-Baha. Qualities of 'Abdu'l-Baha. People call Him "Father of the Poor," "Master of Acre."

*Chapter 56: Two Birds of the Nest of Thy Love

'Abdu'l-Baha at age twenty-eight marries Munirih Khanum; her story.

Chapter 57: The Hand of God

'Abdu'l-Baha and hostile governor; episode of Baha'i shops.

Chapter 58: Oasis

'Abdu'l-Baha obtains Mansion of Mazra'ih outside of Acre. Enlists help of shaykh to persuade Baha'u'llah to leave prison-city. Creates island garden.

Chapter 60: Blessed is the Place

'Abdu'l-Baha acquires Mansion of Bahji for Baha'u'llah.

Chapter 61: To Conquer the Cities of the Hearts

'Abdu'l-Baha's household in house of 'Abbud; 'Abdu'l-Baha praises Baha'i messenger.

*Chapter 62: The Master

'Abdu'l-Baha in Acre: assists poor; meets with leaders of Acre; "Lord of Generosity;" His humility approaching Bahji; responsibilities for Baha'u'llah; love between father and son.

Chapter 63: O Most Exalted Leaf!

Passing of Navvab, 'Abdu'l-Baha's mother, who had called Him "Aqa-Jan."

Chapter 66: The Holy Mountain and the Martyrs of Yazd

Baha'u'llah on Mount Carmel shows 'Abdu'l-Baha spot for final resting place of the Bab.

*Chapter 68: The Sun of Baha has Set

Baha'u'llah's passing and 'Abdu'l-Baha's deep sorrow.

*Chapter 69: An Excellent and Priceless Heritage

'Abdu'l-Baha appointed Center of Covenant by Baha'u'llah in His Will and Testament. 'Abdu'l-Baha writes to Baha'is of the world.